NEW YORK, August 23, 2007 –Today, Inc. named Nadler Modular Structures among its first-ever Inc. 5,000 list of the fastest-growing private companies in the country. The Inc. 5,000, an extension of Inc. magazine's annual Inc. 500 list, catches many businesses that are too big to grow at the pace required to make the Inc. 500, as well as a host of smaller firms. Taken as a whole, these companies represent the backbone of the U.S. economy.

"The Inc. 5,000 provides the most comprehensive look ever at the most important part of the economy – the entrepreneurial part," said Inc. 5,000 Project Manager Jim Melloan. "The expansion of the list has allowed us to tell the stories of larger companies, older companies, and a wealth of companies in industries like Manufacturing and Construction that are underreported in the business media.

For over 30 years, Nadler Modular Structures has quickly and efficiently solved space problems for homebuilders, construction managers, government entities, schools, and the general industry. Much of their growth over the past 3 years is attributed to their loyal customers who have repeatedly come back when they needed spacious and attractive modular solutions for their businesses. These repeat accounts have helped to increase their business by over 70%.

The 2007 Inc. 5,000, as revealed online at www.inc.com, reported median revenue of $9.4 million. Complete information on this year's Inc. 5,000, can be found at www.inc.com/inc5000. In addition, the list is searchable according to numerous criteria, including industry, city, state, region, and year founded.
